TODAY'S JOB CAMPAIGN STRATEGIES

Today's Job Campaign Strategies workshop is designed to prepare individuals for our supporting workshops on resume development and today's interviews.

The aim is to help individuals enhance their skills and prepare them to market themselves for their next job and the ones that come after that.

In today's business environment, jobs don't last as long as they use to. Job candidates need to understand what to expect now and in the future.

PLEASE NOTE: Individuals are requested to register in advance of attending.
